

Key Personnel

Cheri Simon – Managing Director

Cheri has worked within the recruitment industry for just over 10 years and has been within the education sector for five years. Drawing on all her experience she feels that her key skills lie in her ability to understand the individual needs of her clients and their precise requirements when seeking either day to day or long term staff.

Pechonia Coleman – Senior Consultant

Pechonia has worked within the recruitment industry for the last seven years, two of those years within the education sector. Most recently she has been able to marry up her recruitment skills with her training expertise and will be heading up a Training Division mid 2009.

Marvin John – Consultant

Marvin has worked within the education recruitment industry for 2 years and enjoys the challenge that this sector has to offer. He enjoys keeping up to date with the ever changing policies and applying them to his role

Lesley Margiotta– Consultant/Administrator

Lesley has had 2 years experience in this role and comes from a customer service background.
